DAILY CANDY DEALS

Eclectic Home Goods

If home is where the heart is, then yours beats strong with an impersonal mishmash of dowdy family heirlooms and particleboard work-arounds. Clean house and start fresh with a little help from today's Deal and Eclectic Home Goods.

The Place

Some home boutiques grate with their whopping price tags ($10,000 couches were made to be soiled). Others annoy with their twee aesthetic. Eclectic Home Goods gets it just right. Cynthia Kinnecome's North End jewel mixes high and low, classy and cute to amass a spot-on collection of cheery furnishings and ephemera. Those wailing over summer's end will find solace in the nautical accessories, from sea life-adorned pillows to dog leashes made from fishing rope (coastal living is Kinnecome's de facto decorating philosophy). And the store's commitment to green and recycled materials means you won't be writing checks your conscience can't cash.

The Offers

Wethinks fall demands a decor do-over. Pick out a few choice accents, or invest in a singular piece of furniture or artwork. It's time to get that interior-design blood pumping.
